“Achievement, ambition and progress for all....”

Dear Parents and Carers,

We have all had a fabulous time celebrating World Book Day this week.

It was lovely to see so many children enjoying the day. Thank you to all who took part in the day and those who helped to create such amazing costumes.

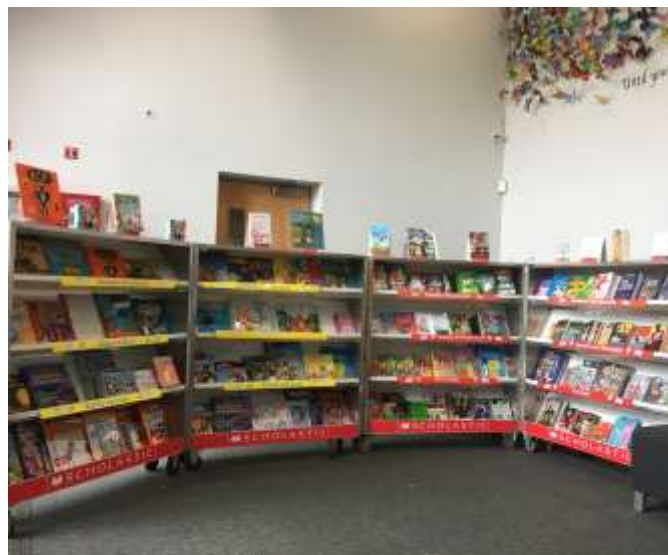

Many thanks go to Pamela and Tina for supporting the school and organising the authors and the activities for every child. Also a big thank you to The Friends for their generous donation that allowed for the authors to visit this week.

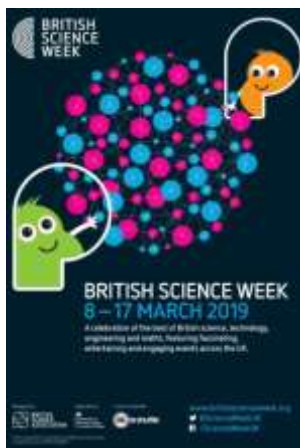

Sara Grant and Tee Dobinson were very inspirational and the children loved learning about becoming authors.

In addition to this, from today, the Atrium will be turned into a book shop! A letter has been sent out providing further details but children will be able to purchase books after school.

Many thanks,

The English Team
Jo Young and Sinead Allpress

Next week John Ball will be participating in British Science Week. A celebration of Science, Technology, Engineering and Maths. This year's theme is 'Journeys' and each year group will enjoy activities throughout the week linked to this.

We will also be sending out details of fun experiments and activities that the children can do at home.

Red Nose Day - Friday 15th March

Pupils are going to be selling the special Red Nose day noses in school in the lead up to Friday 15th March so please try and buy from John Ball rather than outside of school. They will cost £1.25 with 65p going to Comic Relief. Lots of staff will wear something red for the day too!

Everyone is welcome to dress in red and if you wish to donate then please feel free to.

Children from Pupil Voice and staff will tell jokes and perform a special John Ball does Strictly Red Nose Day assembly for both Key stages.

Children are also going to raise money by holding a Red Nose book swap where book donations will be kindly accepted before Friday 15th March.

Donations of good condition books can be left in the atrium from Monday 11th March.
